

Welcome to the CPPN's first Regional Symposium!
Vancouver, British Columbia
Saturday, April 21, 2018

We are happy to collaborate with Positive Living Society of British Columbia
who will host us at 1101 Seymour Street, Vancouver

---

The Program *At-a-Glance

(a detailed agenda will be circulated prior to the Symposium)

Following a light breakfast and a traditional welcome...

1. Introductions, opening remarks and a brief overview of the CPPN's history (and its future).
2. A brief presentation of the CPPN's "Establishing Priorities" consultation process, followed by an interactive discussion of what it means for the CPPN and its members going forward.
3. Presentations and interactive discussions focused on:
  - a. Undetectable equals Untransmittable (U=U), with Brittany Cameron
  - b. The opioid crisis, with Ann Livingston
  - c. HIV and criminal law reform, with Neil Self

After lunch (provided)...

4. Small group discussions focused on regional gaps, priorities, and "local-level" realities and how the CPPN can and should work to address them.
5. Wrap-up, next steps, and closing remarks.